OMNIOS CLIENT ACADEMY

Omnios™

DATE: May 31, 2007

TIME: 1 p.m. - 2 p.m.

TOPIC: Microsoft FRx Financial Reporter Tips & Tricks

Do you find yourself creating new financial reports each time you need one, wondering if there is an easier, quicker way to create these business-essential reports?

Microsoft FRx Financial Reporter provides unique flexibility and a dependable system of three basic building blocks: Row Format, Columns Layout and Reporting Trees, which allow you to create custom template business-essential reports for multiple use time and time again. Custom fonts, formatting and formulas stay with the report – maintaining the professional, boardroom-quality appearance of your reports. The report design tips and tricks can help you create and build these custom reports faster and easier than you expected.

This Webinar will provide insight and training on how FRx can help you free up time from doing clerical tasks and focus on more analytical, big picture items that are important to the success of your company.

PRESENTER: Michael L. Gordon, CPA/Omnios Consultant

Michael Gordon is an Omnios consultant with extensive technology consulting experience. His expertise focuses on Microsoft FRx Forecaster implementation and related training. Mr. Gordon is a CPA and a Microsoft Authorized Consulting Professional (ACP) for FRx Reporter, FRx Forecaster and a MAS 90/200Authorized Consultant.
